

FACT: Montana is home to 427 bird species!

How many Montana birds can you name?

FACT: There are seven national parks in Montana

What can you do while camping to preserve and protect the wildlife around you?

FACT: Although grizzly bears are typically solitary, cubs stay with their mother for 2-3 years.

Grizzly bears are also omnivores.

How many foods from the grizzly bear's diet can you name?

FACT: Male elk are called bulls, females are called cows and newborns are called calfs.

What other animals have antlers?

FACT: Cormorants are large water birds that feed mostly on fish

What actions can humans take to help species like cormorants?

FACT: The horns on a bighorn sheep can tell us about their age

What other animals can be found around mountains?

What would you like to grow in your garden? Draw your vision in the space above and describe it here.

FACT: Bees work together to succeed as a hive

How can humans work together to help wildlife thrive?

What are some benefits of gardening?

FACT: Hay, wheat & barley are Montana's main crops

How does farming support wildlife?